THE WATER SUPPLY OF THE CITY. A COMMISSION APPOINTED BY THE MAYOR IN REP-

ERENCE TO THE PROPOSED NEW AQUEDUCT.

A COMMISSION APPOINTED BY THE MAYOE IN REFERENCE TO THE PROPOSED NEW AQUEDUCT.

Mavor Edson yesterday appointed Orlando B. Potter, Amos F. Eno, William Dowd, John T. Agnew and Hugh N. Camp a commission to confer with him relative to the plan proposed by the Commissioner of Public Works for a new aqueduct, its practicability, probable cost, and the time required for construction. The State Senate last week passed a resolution authorizing the appointment of such commission. The commission will hold meetings from time to time and discuss the matter.

La regard to this matter Mayor Edson said yesterday to a reporter of The FRIBULE: "I have given this subject considerable study, and my views given this subject considerable study, and my views are embodied in my message." In this document the Mayor calls attention to the fact that in the summer and autumn of 1881 the city barely escaped a water famine. The number of dwellings, manufactories and other structures built and begun since that time, he says, are fully equal in extent to 5,000 houses, which the city undertakes to supply with pure and wholesome water. This will give some idea of the magnitude of the disaster which would be fall the city with the recurrence of conditions no worse than those of 1881. Promot and vixorous action in two directions is imperative. The most effective measures to suppress waste should be adopted and vigilantly enforced. The legislation necessary to the construction of such works as will furnish the city an abundant supply of pure water should be secured with the least possible delay and an increased demand should be anticipated far in excess of any that has occurred within the forty years of the Croton aqueduct's existence. The construction of the dam and acueduct as contemplated by the Commissioner of Public Works would involve the expenditure of a large amount of money, estimated at $14,000,000, and would requireseveral years for completion. This plan, indorsed by many eminent engineers, is probably the best that can be devised, th is estimated that the reservoir thus constructed with hold 32,000,000,000 gallons which, with a delivery of 200,000,000 gallons per day, would contain a supply for 160 days for the city. The aqueduct should be in a tunnel, this being deemed safest. One with a diameter of twelve leet wil deliver 270,000,000 gallons in tweety-four hours. The plan proposed by Engi eers Newton and Chesbrough has now been before the public for nearly one year, and has been approved by all engineers who have studied it. I am only anxious that a practical plan shall be approved—although I do not believe that any better one than this can be devised—and the work berun. The city is growing so fast that we must have an additional water supply. Otherwise there is danger that the experience of 1881 may be repeated. Moreover, New-York is now the first manufacturing city in the country. Unless we can furnish a proper supply of water we shall lose this preeminence." di hold 32,000,000,000 gallous, which, with a deas my employer will pay only half of the reward."

Detective Dunn said last night: "The case of triamings was seen lying in the street in front of the Metropolitan Hotel by an acquaintance of mine, who is a poor Irishnan in the employ of the Stewart estate. His attention was called to the case by the shying of a horse, which nearly ran over it. The Irishnan and a friend drew the box to the walk. They were advised to keep it until the ownershould advertise for it. The case, which weighs less than 100 pounds, was taken care of by the Irishnan until this morning, when on seeing the advertisement for it with $200 reward offered, he told me of the matter, and I then went with him to No. 411 Washington-st. I knew nothing about the matter before that. I advised the Irishman to keep the case until it should be advertised, and if no advertisement appeared by this morning, that he should then himself advertise the finding of the case. Had I known of the matter before I did, it would not have been my duty to notify the police, as the Irishman should have been entitled to any reward offered. I went with him to Washington-st. simply as a friend."

THE REMOVAL OF STREET SWEEPINGS.

Commissioner Coleman yesterday opened bids for the final disposition of the street sweepings, askes and garbage collected in this city and delivered at the several dumping places of the Department of Street Cleaning, for four years from February 1, 1883. The person or persons to whom the contract may be awarded will be required to furnish suitable and sufficients cows and boats for the reception of the material and to defray the expense of trimming, towing and unloading the seows or boats. The bids ranged from 14½ to 19 cents per cubic yard, and as there are supposed to be about 1,000,000 cubic yards to be removed annually, the proposed cost to the city ranges from $145,000 to $190,000. There were eighteen bids altogether, the bidders being as follows: John Fox, New-York, 14½ cents; J. A. Bouker, New-York, 23½ cents; Semily & Martin. South Amboy, 19 cents; Joseph Walsh, New-York, 18 cents; albert Daggett, Brook-yn, 16½ cents; F. T. Walton, New-York, 16½ cents; F. J. C'Reilly, New-York, 15 cents. The contracts will not be awarded until the injunction issued restraining Commissioner Coleman from making such award has been finally disposed of.

The street-cleaning force was en aged yesterday in removing snow from Broadway above Thirty-fourth-st, and opening the gutters and culverts. Further than this not much was attempted. THE REMOVAL OF STREET SWEEPINGS.

NEARLY SMOTHERED BY THE SNOW.

Dr. Howard Pinkney, of No. 24 East Forty-firstst., was driving in Eighth-ave., at Eighty-firstst, with a friend on Saturday night. There was a blinding storm at the time, and suddenly the horse and carriage were precipitated into an excavation, which had been made before the snow fell. There were no lamps or other signals displayed, and the occupants of the carriage were nearly smothered in the snow, and were somewhat injured by the shock. They were helped out of the excavation, which is thirty feet long and fifteen feet deep, by a Park policeman. At the Department of Parks yesterday. Commissioner Olliffe said that the excavations had been made by a contractor, and that he knew nothing about the accident. The Department, Mr. Olliffe added, was not responsible for it. At Dr. Plakney's house it was said that the injuries he had received were slight and resulted mostly from the shock, and not from striking anything. NEARLY SMOTHERED BY THE SNOW.

THE BURR WILL CONTEST.

The examination of Mr. Pelletier, in the Burr will contest, was continued yesterday before Surrogate Rollins. He identified a great many letters written by Miss Burr and Mr. Titus to one auother. The letters related entirely to commonplace matters. Miss Burr once told the witness that she was bardly able to believe that her cetate had attained such large proportions. She said she would dispose of the most of it in her will for charitable purposes; she wished Mr. Titus to suggest proper charities to her, but would not promise to follow his sugges-tions. She would not allow any one to make a will for her. The examination will be continued to-day.

GHOSTLY SOUNDS IN HARLEM.

GHOSTLY SOUNDS IN HARLEM.

"I want you to devote to-morrow to looking up other apartments; I won't stay in this house another day—where there's ghosts," was the greeting a loving and tired husband and father received upon reaching his home in one of the new flats in One-hundred-and-Sixteenth-st. The husband pleaded for an explanation, but had reason to regret his non-submission. The wife continued: "It's no use talking to me; don't attempt to dictate to me; I tell you I won't listen to it. I'm going to move whether you do or not. I tell you the house is haunted, and I'm going to pack up to-night and move to-morrow. Why, the children have been crying all the afternoon; mother is frightened until she's nearly dead; and, as for me—I tell you. I'm going to move. If you don't believe what I tell you, go up stairs and ask the folks on the next flat." The husb nd did so. He found that the determination to move out at once was epidemic, and there promised to be an empty house on the landlord's hands the next day.

It appears that on Thursday last all the people in the house were startled by a loud runbling sound, followed by vibrations of the chandeliers and rattling of the globes. These disturbances began about 2 o'clock in the afternoon and continued at irregular intervals until dark. There was scarcely any sie-p tor anybody in the house that night, but the women were finally induced to forego moving another day. When the husbands returned home on Friday night the women and children were all assembled in the upper part of the house, some crying and others talking incoherently, with ashen countenances and colorless lips. The manifestations had occurred the second time. There was more certainty than before that the house was haunted, and a stronger determination to remove without further delay was manifest. The men tried to reason with their wives, children and mothers-in-law, but to no purpose. They had reached a point beyond reason.

It was finally agreed that one of the men should remain at home the following day and take notes. As he was engaged in writing on Saturday he was started by a report like that of a cannon, tollowed by ramblings like those heard in a bowling alley; these were accompanied by the swinging of the chandeliers and the jingling of the globes. Fifteen minutes afterward another manifestation occurred which made his blood run cold. It was followed by the tumuting of one of the glass globes upon the table in front of him, where it broke into a hundred pieces.

On Sunday and yesterday the same disturbances occurred with undiminished violence.

THE ICE IN THE RIVERS AND BAY.

There was little difficulty experienced yesterday by the ferryboats on account of the floating ice, but several amosing incidents occurred in the caloins, caused by the blocks of ice in the wheel. Occasionally a large piece would be thrown against the side of the cabin directly against the place where a thoughtless passenger was leaning his head. Thoughts of a botler explosion and of a collision seemed to rush through the mind of the frightened man as he jumped to his feet, only to sit down again amid the laughter of his fellow-passenge. The boats on the North River ferries were only delayed a minute or two in entering their slips. Raritan Bay, Staten Island Sound and the upper bay contained a considerable quantity of ice, but it was constantly kept in motion by the tide, and so did not impede navigation much. The gate-keeper at Fulton Ferry said that the ice in the East River vesterday was only "meadow ice," and that the flood tide had carried large quantities of it into the Sound. He added that the boats on his line had been on time all day.

The question of an ice blockade this winter has THE ICE IN THE RIVERS AND BAY.

The question of an ice blockade this winter has revived the somewhat venerable query, "When The question of an ice blockade this winter has revived the somewhat venerable query, "When will the bridge be finished sufficiently to allow boat passengers to cross it, should the ferry-boats be compelled to stop running?" No oac has been round rash enough to suggest an answer. C. C. Martin, the Assistant Engineer, said yesterday to a reporter: "The date for the opening has not been fixed," and added, "We are pushing the work."

URGING CHURCH WORK AMONG CHINAMEN.

There was an adjourned meeting of the Presbytery of New-York yesterday in the Scotch Church. The following ministers and laymen were appointed a Committee on Church Extension and Sustentation: The Rev. Dr. R. R. Booth and R. R. Belkmap, of the University Piace Presbyterian Church; the Rev. Dr. E. L. Clark, of the Church of the Puritans; the Rev. Dr. Howard Crosby, of the Fourth Avenue Church; the Rev. Dr. John Hall, of the Firth Avenue Church; the Rev. J. J. the Covenant.

Dr. Spear, of Philadelphia, made an address on the Chiaese in this city and throughout the country. He said that there were 140,000 Chinamen in the United States and about 2,000 in this city. He advised the Presbytery to do more for this people than it had so far.

RUNAWAY HORSE IN UNION SQUARE.

A two-wheeled covered vehicle, owned by the Germicide Company, and driven by Edward Lambert, was overturned by a collision with a truck, at Fourth-ave, and Fourteenth-st., yesterday. Lambert and a boy who was riding with him were thrown out and bruised slightly. The horse ran away. It dashed through Fourteenth-st., dragging the wrecked gig, to the imminent danger of many persons who were crossing the streets. At Bond-st. the animal narrowly escaped raining against two or three stages, and much excitement was caused among the many persons who were on the sidewalk. A wagon belonging to W. Jackson & Son, grate-makers, at No. 1,166 Broadway, was in the way of the horse at University-place, and the driver tried in vain to avoid a collision. The runaway horse jumped over the hinder part of the wagon, which was broken by the gig. Fragments of the gig were hurled in various directions, and only the wheels, shafts and floor remained.

At Fifth-ave, the frightened animal turned southward. Policeman Hopper, who was at Tenth-st.. saw it approaching and made a courageous attempt to stop it. He threw it down, but it broke loose again and ran as far as Ninth-st., where it was stopped by several men. The horse was not much hurt.

WHAT WILL DRAW A CONGREGATION.

The Baptist preachers held their regular weekly meeting yesterday at No. 9 Murray-st. The Rev. Dr. E. F. Hiscox, of Mount Vernon, read an essay entitled, "What Constitutes Scriptural Deposition from the Gospel Ministry." "It is impossible in this age," he said, "when every sensational preacher having the ability to formulate whimsical dogmas can gather round him a congregation, to denose a minister. He may be guilty of gross immorality, may be convicted and deposed on the authority of the church or council, still in this land or liberty and equal rights no one dare gainsay his privilege to preach, while his preaching is not detrimental to the interests of good government." WHAT WILL DRAW A CONGREGATION.

DUPLICATE MACHINERY WANTED. DUPLICATE MACHINERY WANTED.

President Gorman, of the Fire Department, has been anxious for some time to have the delicate fire telegraph machinery duplicated, in order that if Headquarters should be burned up the telegraph service would not be crippied. At his suggestion the Board of Fire Commissioners yesterday passed a resolution to the effect that a fire-proof building ought to be erected in a central part of the city, in which to place duplicate sets of fire alarm justruments, such as are in use at Fire Headquarters. It is intended to appeal to the Legislature for an appropriation or for a special act to carry out such a plan.

SEARCHING FOR HIS OWN HOUSE. A man who seemed to be excited entered Police Headquarters yesterday, and said to the policeman at the door: "I thought I lived at No. 45 Bleecker st, but I have been there and that an't the place. I wish you would tell me where I do live."
"Have you got any direction?" the policeman asked.

The City Council will draw up an affidavit, which will be submitted to Judge Depue, when the designated number of citizens wait upon him.

Vice-Chancillor Bird was engaged yesterday in tak vice-Chancillor Birli was engaged yesterday in taking additional testimony in the case of Albert Doveil, formerly paying teller of the First National Bank, against the directors of that institution in a suit to recover property conveyed to these directors for a discrepancy of about $100.000 in his accounts, which, he asserts, he was not responsible for. The material facts testified to have appeared in previous accountable. The property witness vesterday examinations. The principal witness yesterday was William A. Thomas, book keeper in the bank, who testified to various discrepancies and their dates on the books of the bank.

NEW-JERSEY.

PATERSON.—Sergeant Barelay and five patrolman made a descent early yesterday morning upon a gang of rufflans, who had taken possession of a canal boat in the Morris Canal, after having turned the skipper, Frederick Davenport, out upon the tow-path. The pirates at first refused to admit the policemen, but Officer Mills fired several shots into the cabin and the men made haste to open the door. A number of dead chickens were found in the cabin which had been stolen from persons living near the canal. The prisoners were taken to the police station. Their names are Barney Rilduff, Thomas Maloney, Joseph Burke. William, alias "Reddy," Ryan and Alfred Green, alias "The Major," alias "James Dunn," Green was recognized by Chief Graul as one of the men who are wanted for the robbery of M. H. Dickerson's dry-roods store in Dover, N. J., January 4. There is also an indictment against him in Bergen County for burglary. Kilduff has recently been released from the Albany pententiary, where he served six months for the robbery of some freight ears of the New-York, Lake Erie and Western Railrond at Goshen, N. Y. He is the man who was badiy burned while sleeping on a cinder dump near the Newark Branch track in Paterson in December, 1880. The released servents. NEW-JERSEY.

a cinder dump near the Newark Branch track in Paterson in December, 1880. The prisoners were ommitted to jail. WESTCHESTER COUNTY. TARRYTOWN.—An incendiary set fire to a quantity of straw and other inflammable material saturated with kerosene oil, on Sunday night, near a basement window of the building at No 47 Orchard-st., oc-cupied as a liquor store by William H. Bassitt. The flames were soon extinguished.

MR. NAVARRO'S APARTMENT HOUSES.

Although the work on Mr. Navarro's apartment houses, facing Central Park, has been checked by the frost, they have now advanced as high as the fourth floor. The general scope and magnitude of the frost, they have now advanced as bigh as the fourth floor. The general scopes and magnitude of the work begin to be apparent. The site covers $5,000 square feet, with a frontage on Fifty-ninthest, of 428 feet and on Seventh-ave of 200 feet. About one-fourth of the area is set aside to secure light and air for the buildings. The centre of the block is occupied by three large courts, 80 feet wide, opening into one another. The structure itself, though apparently one large building, is divided into sight pavisions, to be called after the principal towns of Spain. Each is constructed to accommodate sixteen families, with a separate entrance and elevator. The larger suites are so contrived that the reception rooms open one into the other, so that a floor space of 2,000 square feet can be obtained when desired. The structure will rise 145 feet from the curb. It will contain 12,000,000 cubic feet, being four times the size of the Mills Building. It will cost about $3,000,000, or about 25 cents a cubic foot. Including the land, the undertaking will involve an outlay of $5,000,000. The design provides for nine stories. The lower of these are constructed of Indiana stone and the others of brick, of which the building will require 50,000,000. Two handsome Moorish arches are just finished, through which the carriages will drive into the central court and allow guests to alight under cover. alight under cover.

CHARGED WITH A CAPITAL CRIME.

The trial of John Kenny, a bill-pos'er and notorlous criminal of Brooklyn, for murder in the first degree, in killing John Leonard, a car-driver, was begin in the Kings Coun'y Court of Sessions, before Judge Moore, yesterday. On October 20, 1882, Leonard was found dead in Duffield st, with a bullet-hole in his head. Kenny was known to have been with him, and his discharged revolver, which the bullet in the dead man's head fitted, was found where he had hidden it. The dead man's watch, which one of Kenny's associates pawned, was also found. Another of his associates is expected to testify that he left Kenny and Leonard together. A panel of 350 jurors had been drawn, but only 180 answered to their names. A motion for an adjournment on the ground that ex-Assistant District Attorney Wernberg, of counsel for the defence, was engaged in the case of Mayor DeBevoise in Long Island City, was denied. The day was spent in trying to get a jury. The trial of John Kenny, a bill-poster and notori-

TRUSSES.

The fallacy of curing rupture by trusses has been fully established by the experience of past area. There is certainly no truss that will restrictly cure confirmed rupture, or that can be truly considered, if worn any length of time, other than injurious.

What is the truss but a half-noop cripping steel or iron bands, provided on each side with pads to press simultancounty upon the back and abdomen! What must be the effect of the nads! Are they not hatting and deblitating to the back and walls of the abdomen! Is not the ceaseless ferce of the minepring bearing these pads towards each other attended with tearful results! Look for a moment into the structure of man, the location of the organs and ou will say with us that the kidneys, the bladder the tendon, the spice, the vertibre, and the umbar reclous must somer are later be seriously affected by the continued pressure of the trues, and manhood destroyed ere the victim has reached the pride of life.

RUPTURE.

From the St. Louis Globe Democrat. Nov. 27, 1882.

MR. REARD'S RUPTURE EXPENDENCES.

MR. Stillman A. Beard, a prominent farmer from Hughsville, Mo., formerly an old resident of Marine, Ill., was in the city last week for the pur ose of obtaining Dr. J. A. SHER.

MAN'S treatment for a recent left side rupture. He stated that in 1874 he was treated by Dr. SHERMA for a right side rupture as aree as the Jordan case in the Doctor's illustrated book, and was effectually cured, and expects to reap the same benefit ag sin, notwithstanding he is 65 years of age. Mr.
Beard is nothusiastic in praise of Dr. SHERMA VS system, believing it the only one by which rupture can be thoroughly carred, having exhausted all other remedies before he applied to him in the first instance.

Dr. Sherman,

has now been favorably known for over 30 years as the only successful practitioner in his a cenaity in this country. Those who value immunity from strangulated repture the injuries treases inflict and the comports of physical soundness, should lose no time in securing the benefits of his treatment and remedies. His "Book on Rupture "gives convincing proofs from professional scatteren and others of his access in treatment, it is illustrated with photographic pictures of oad cases, before and after co. and is sent to those who send ten coute, Principal office, So, 251 Broadway, New-York.
